

Testimonials

“Matilda is wonderfully patient and caring, and helps me to live in harmony with my daughter. I no longer need to nag my daughter to study everyday, as she builds a plan and has weekly checks-in with Matilda. Can't thank you enough!”

Janet Winfavour, Parent, Hong Kong

“Georgina has benefited scholastically plus emotionally since Matilda entered her life. I hear Georgina finding coping mechanisms that alleviate her anxieties and my heart rejoices and I thank the higher power that found Matilda Ruby”

Lorraine Turtle, Grandmother of Student, Sydney

"My three children (ages 6, 8, & 12) all enjoy their weekly sessions with Matilda. She covers a range of topics, mainly literacy, and tailors the sessions to their needs. They are always happy and proud when they finish. Very complimentary to their schooling. Thank you Matilda."

Laetitia P, Mother, French International School

“Matilda is very patient and friendly. She is very experienced in supporting students who are receiving psychological counseling like my daughter. She inspires my daughter to enjoy learning and life. My daughter does not feel anxious when working with Matilda, they interact well. I highly recommend teacher Matilda to everyone, she will help parents reduce their worries about their children”

Momo, Mother of student, Hong Kong

“Matilda has a brilliant and diverse range of skills. She is innovative, creative, has a great sense of humour, and has an energetic can-do attitude. From my personal knowledge of Matilda, I can also attest to her warm, welcoming and genuine personality.”

Liza-Jane Sowden, Tourism Australia

"Matilda was referred to me through a close friend, and has been working with my daughter over the past 6 months. As a result of their work together we have seen a marked improvement in coping skills and a reduction in school related anxiety. My daughter enjoys her time working with Matilda."
